

WHO ARE WE (ALLED TO BE?

REFLECTION GUIDE

The Association of Colleges of Sisters of St. Joseph (ACSSJ) offers the "Leading in the Footsteps of our Founders" webinar series as an opportunity for students on our campuses to explore leadership by promoting an awareness to the needs of the "dear neighbor" and working for the common good, all in the spirit of our founders, the Sisters of St. Joseph. The series brings together a diverse group of people throughout our campuses and offers different perspectives and insights in living as engaged ethical leaders in an interconnected world.

This program is funded through a generous grant from the C. Charles Jackson Foundation.

LEADING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF OUR FOUNDERS

WHO ARE WE CALLED TO BE?

JOURNEYING INTO THE PAST AND LEADING INTO THE FUTURE

Take a few moments to reflect on aspects of our conversation that deeply resonated and challenged your notions of leadership.

What does it mean to be a leader in today's world inspired by the spirit of the Sisters of St. Joseph?

Who are we as a human family called to be?

What inspires me most about the Sisters of St. Joseph? How can this inspiration turn into a vision for my personal growth and leadership?

Just like the Sisters of Saint Joseph who have left profound footprints throughout history, what are the footprints that I wish to leave behind on this campus through my leadership?

CONTEMPLATE AND INTEGRATE!

The Maxims of the Little Institute were written by Jesuit priest, Father Jean-Pierre Medaille. These maxims contain values and virtues that are foundational to a way of life that combines contemplative living and service to the dear neighbor. Read and reflect on the following maxims and think about ways you can integrate these maxims into your everyday life.

"KEEP EVOLVING YOURSELF."

"GET CAUGHT UP IN LOVE'S DESIGN AND REVEL IN IT!"
